BARB TOURTILLOTTE

Barb Tourtillotte (pronounced tour-till-oh) attended Central Washington University and the Burnley School of Professional Art in Seattle, where she majored in graphic design and illustration. After a dozen years as a graphic designer, she made the transition to full-time artist, and has illustrated over 50 books, in addition to magazines, posters and puzzles.

From whimsical snowmen to beautiful florals, her artwork can now be seen on fabrics, dinnerware, greeting cards, kitchen textiles and giftware. “I feel so blessed that the Lord has given me this gift, which is both my livelihood and recreation.” Barb resides in beautiful Washington State with her husband, Kirk, and three teenage children.
