PENNI JO COUCH

Penni Jo wears a lot of hats. Wife, mother, grandmother, designer, sculptor and artist. This stay-at-home mom had a cottage industry making bears, babies, dishes, rocking horses and other tiny, whimsical items, and that hobby led to an offer to join United Design Corporation as a designer and sculptor in 1989. For the next 15 years, she designed and sculpted in nearly all of the company's lines.

From critters of all sizes, both domestic and wild, to angels, crosses and spiritual gifts, her art has graced hundreds of products for the home and garden.
